

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

In addition, it is nothing less than an in-kind CONTRIBUTION to the Bush campaign, one that possibly violates election law.

Furthermore, it clearly violates the media mandate to serve the public, in a promise the media makes in return for the priveledge of broadcasting at all.

In an election year, the public needs to be presented with a solid background on the issues all the candidates are addressing.

We are-regardless of political persuasion-ill served by character assassination posing as documentary.

This is particularly true when the owners of a media outlet are so clearly supporters and friends of ONE CANDIDATE.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves FREE of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

Please OBLIGE them to serve ALL of the public by cancelling "Stolen Honor" and replacing it with programs examining the impact of EACH candidate's policies on local issues.

Thank you
